Proven Paths to Improvement

For the improving player there is no stronger foundation available in chess education than the Artur Yusupov series. Start with the orange volumes and move to the blue and green.

Award Winners

Under the Surface by Jan Markos was our winner of the ECF Book of the Year 2018. In 2019 we had two shortlisted titles, Small Steps to Giant Improvement by Sam Shankland, which won the Chess Book Collectors Book of the Year 2018 Award, and the amazing Practical Chess Beauty by Yochanan Afek. Small Steps 2 Success was shortlisted for the FIDE Book of the Year 2020 Award.

For the advanced player we recommend Jacob Aagaard’s award-winning Grandmaster Preparation series.

Since our first titles were published in October 2004, Quality Chess has found favour with the public and critics alike, winning the following Book of the Year awards:

If you are looking for high-quality training options, we recommend you look into our partners www.qualitychessacademy.com for a camp and tournament on the Greek island of Crete in October 2021, or www.killerchesstraining.com for daily online classes with the best trainers available anywhere at the best price.

Beyond the Basics where you go next

With this leaflet, we at Quality Chess are marking our 18th season as a Chess Publisher. We were founded in 2004 and have published 178 books in English, as well as the 20+ we have planned for 2021. We are a small team of six people, who sadly have not been able to meet up for a group photo for a long long time. This is our latest one. We hope you will have a successful 2021, with lots of happiness and chess!
Game Collections

  Think Like a Super-GM
  Michael Adams, with help from Phil Hurtado, compares his thoughts to those of players of all levels and helps the reader to see how they can transform their thinking.

- Jacob Aagaard
  A Matter of Middlegame Technique
  A Matter of Endgame Technique
  Delayed by the rain, GM Jacob Aagaard shows how winning positions are squandered and how to avoid it.

- Alexander Galkin
  The Mental Game
  In this valuable addition to chess training/improvement literature, GM Alexander Galkin delves deeply into the topic of what makes a winning chess mindset.

- Jacob Aagaard & Steffen Nielsen
  Endgame Labyrinths
  GM Jacob Aagaard teams up with one of the greatest chess composers of our age to create the ultimate exercise book from endgame studies, choosing the moment where it is time to think as the starting point.

Opening Books

- Mihail Marin
  Leningrad Dutch & Dutch Sidelines
  The Leningrad Dutch is one of Black’s most ambitious replies to 1.d4 and GM Marin is the ideal author to explain both the strategic ideas and the latest theory.

- Gawain Jones
  Coffeehouse Repertoire 1.e4 1&2
  These two volumes constitute nothing short of a 1.e4 player’s sweetest dream: a complete repertoire supplied by a top-class GM, combining coffeehouse trickery with theoretical rigour.

- Lars Schandorff
  Playing the Caro-Kann
  The expert is returning to the origin point. 10 years after his best-selling repertoire for Black on the Caro-Kann, the Danish GM has re-imagined the opening for our time.

- Michael Roiz
  GM Repertoire – The Berlin Defence
  It’s been more than 20 years since Kramnik used the Berlin Defence to shut down Kasparov. In this expert guide, GM Michael Roiz shows why the Berlin is still one of the absolute best opening systems you will find.

- Alexey Kovalchuk
  Playing the Queen’s Gambit Accepted
  Dynamic and solid. The Queen’s Gambit Accepted has been a trusted opening for many grandmasters over the decades, as it gives an active open game and a sound foundation for the middlegame.
